My Favorite Yellow School Bus

The yellow bus comes down
my street,

With rumbling wheels and noisy feet.

I find my seat and wave
goodbye,

As trees and houses pass right by.

It takes me where I learn and play,

With friends I see most every day.

A simple ride, both fun and bright,

That starts my morning just right.
