

Answer Key

Part A: Answers will vary. Students should create sentences with a clear literal and hidden meaning.

Sample Answers:

The student found her voice.

Literal: She found a sound or way to speak.

Hidden: She became confident expressing her ideas.

The artist drew a crowd.

Literal: Created a drawing of people.

Hidden: Attracted many viewers.

The team hit a home run.

Literal: Hit a baseball successfully.

Hidden: Achieved great success.

Challenge Sample Answer:

Writers use double entendres to make language more creative, memorable, and interesting for readers.