NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Worksheet 4: Trait or Feeling?

QUICK NOTES

A character trait and a character feeling are not the same.

- Character Trait: Describes what a character is generally like. Examples: honest, brave, patient, and generous.
- Character Feeling: Describes an emotion a character experiences. Examples: excited, worried, angry, and surprised.

Remember: Traits usually describe personality, while feelings can change depending on what happens in a story.

PART A: TRAIT OR FEELING?

Read each word and write T for Character Trait or F for Feeling.

No.	Word	Answer
1	Generous
2	Frightened
3	Patient

4	Disappointed
5	Honest
6	Excited
7	Stubborn
8	Embarrassed

PART B: READ AND CLASSIFY

Read each situation and decide whether the bold word describes a character trait or a feeling.

9. Olivia always shares her lunch with classmates who forget theirs.

She is generous.
Answer: _____

10. Before opening the results of the art contest, Jack's hands began to shake. He felt nervous.

Answer: _____

11. Even when a puzzle was difficult, Ethan kept working until he solved it. He was determined.

Answer: _____

12. When her best friend moved to another town, Lily felt sad.

Answer: _____

PART C: THINK AND APPLY

13. Read the situation:

Noah usually speaks quietly in class, but today he feels excited because he is going on a school trip.

- What is Noah's character trait? _____
- What is Noah's feeling today? _____

14. Write one character trait and one feeling of your choice.

- Character Trait: _____
- Character Feeling: _____